

NICKALLS STILL COACH OF YALE'S VARSITY EIGHT

Manager Hobson of Crew Denies Former's Resignation Over Differences.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., May 27.—Guy Nickalls is still coach of the Yale varsity eight, said Manager Henry W. Hobson of the crew today in commenting on a report that Nickalls had resigned or offered to resign because of criticism of his methods of teaching rowing at Yale and because of friction among the coaches. He declared that the reports were much "exaggerated" and that there were no serious differences.

"Mr. Nickalls is still coach of the varsity," said Mr. Hobson. "The whole thing has been straightened out and everything is going along smoothly."

Mr. Hobson said there was a conference in New York Tuesday night attended by Capt. Denegre, the coaches and prominent Yale graduates, at which the whole situation was discussed and "straightened out." He also said that the matter of rigging of the shell had been considered at length and while the eight had re-entered the American Regatta boat, as reported last night, was not to be taken as an indication of permanent change.

No definite decision had been reached on that point and none would be until both methods had been tried out. It was probable, he said, that another conference would be held shortly.

Mistaking Outside Comment.

An authority on athletic management in the university stated that the "incident" was entirely due to Mr. Nickalls' mistaking outside comment as indicative of Yale sentiment upon crew matters. At the gathering in New York, Mr. Nickalls explained his position. He stated that he had taken very much to heart criticism he had heard, as he felt that it must have represented the views of Yale men. So badly did he feel, it is stated, that he did not care to continue longer as coach.

The gathering of Yale men, which included a number of former oarsmen and prominent graduates, besides the advisory committee and crew management, assured Mr. Nickalls that he had misinterpreted the remarks he heard. The advisory committee had absolute confidence in the present coaching plans, Mr. Nickalls was assured.

Mr. Nickalls replied that he felt more at ease and would continue his work.

GOES TO NORTH DAKOTA

Rev. A. H. Thompson Exchanges
Pastorates With Rev.
F. M. McCoy.

Rev. A. H. Thompson, who for the past five years has been pastor of Waugh M. E. Church, at 3d and A streets northeast, has resigned and accepted a call to become pastor of the First M. E. Church of Grand Forks, N. D., an educational center of that state. The pastor of the Grand Forks Church, Rev. Francis M. McCoy, has accepted a call to Waugh Church, the move being an exchange of pastorates. The pastors will assume their new charges July 1.

The reason that Rev. Thompson desires to accept the North Dakota call is that his only son is engaged in business in the west and his parents desire to be in close proximity to him, so that the family may be together as often as possible.

The pastor came to Washington from Frostburg, Md., after a successful pastorate. Previous to that time he was pastor of Wilson Memorial M. E. Church of this city for five years.

JOB FOR PROPER DRESSERS.

Chicago Girls Should Avoid Slit
Skirts and Low Necks.

CHICAGO, May 27.—Young women with good dispositions, average attractiveness and with no slit skirts, low-cut necks or flat curls gummed on their cheeks need never lack employment in Chicago, provided that they possess a reasonable degree of competency. This was the result of a discussion of the subject here last night by employment heads of a number of large department stores and mail order concerns and experts from the Women's Trade Union League, and several civic bodies.

One employer said that the greatest problem is the middle-aged woman who had grown careless of her appearance. Another declared that it was freakish girls. A third said that the hardest kind of girl to find a place for was the college girl with no vocational training.

ERROR IN CONVICTION OF FRATERNAL OFFICERS

District Court of Appeals Holds "Criminal Intent" Must Be Shown.

The District Court of Appeals has set aside the conviction of Samuel J. Masters and John B. Kinnear, charged with embezzlement by wrongful conversion of funds belonging to the Modern Workmen of the World, of which fraternal organization the accused were, respectively, chief master workman and chief scribe. The court remands the case for a new trial.

The decision was rendered by Justice Van Orsdel and concurred in by Justice Robb. Chief Justice Shepard dissented. The appellate court finds that the trial judge committed reversible error when he practically directed the jury to convict the defendant, and did not permit their counsel to argue the question of criminal intent. "The court fell into this error," says Justice Van Orsdel, "in interpreting the statute to mean that the mere conversion of the funds constituted a wrongful conversion and therefore the question of criminal intent was not an element of the crime to be proven as in a common law felony."

Congress may declare an act criminal, the appellate court points out, irrespective of the intent of the actor of the act. But to admit of such a judicial construction it must clearly appear that such was the legislative intent, the court suggests. Under the wording of code section 834, the court holds, criminal intent becomes an essential fact in establishing the guilt of a person accused of its violation. "The crime here," says Justice Van Orsdel, "does not consist in mere conversion, but in 'wrongful conversion.'"

A MAN OUT FOR HIS HOLIDAY ENJOYMENT

Knows the value of being suitably attired for an outing and will not overlook the benefits which our foresight and experience provide.

Blue Serge Suits and Other Fine Outing Clothes.

The Blue Serge Suit has a standard value as an outing or summer dress garment that cannot be discredited or reduced in the slightest degree. We have ready large stocks of Fine Blue Serge Suits, in many models, a goodly number of which are made expressly for us by Hart Schaffner & Marx. It is pretty generally conceded that London sets the style; we have the London type, and the more conservative also.

$15.00 to $35.00 each.

Our special $25.00 Blue Serge Suit is a value that far surpasses our best previous efforts. In former seasons the suit made of this same quality material has been priced at $35.00. The lowering of price is due to change in tariff, as the fabric is a fine imported English serge. Two models; one an English, the other a modified style.

Double-breasted Blue Flannel Outing Coats; a new garment, especially adapted for wear with white flannel or serge outing trousers, $10.00.

Light-weight Coats for street and office wear; all kinds of good fabrics; some silk; black, blue, tan and gray, $15.00 to $10.00.

Second floor, F. st.

Our Exclusive St. Regis Straw Hat at $2.00.

The various models and straws represent the choicest fashions of the season, and will find favor with particular men in every instance; finely blocked and finished throughout.

The St. Regis Hat can be had nowhere else. Many men feel the same way about the value. Priced at $2.00.

Our 4th street Men's Shop Window will convey an impression of their excellence and the vast assortments.
